Profile

Andrew is a physical therapist practicing at both Willowbrook and Downers Grove clinics. He has over 25 years of experience treating musculoskeletal injuries. The majority of those 25 years have been in outpatient orthopedics treating a variety of musculoskeletal injuries, including athletic injuries, work related injuries, and total joint replacements. Andrew joined the IBJI team in July, 2022.

Andrew played competitive club soccer as a youth, as well as varsity soccer, basketball and tennis in high school. He now enjoys spending much of his free time watching his four daughters play competitive club soccer, as well as refereeing soccer games when time allows. When not on the soccer field, he and his family like to hike and backpack, especially on the Appalachian Trail.
