Profile

Chad joined the IBJI team in 2022. He is a graduate of Azusa Pacific University where he earned his Bachelor degree in Exercise Science as well as his Doctorate in Physical Therapy. Chad's education focused on biomechanics, movement analysis, and manual therapy.

Chad's goal is to help patients get back to the sports and activities they enjoy without pain. He believes that each patient requires an individualized plan in order to accelerate their healing by increasing strength, correcting movement mechanics, and decreasing pain. In his free time Chad likes to play sports and spend time with his family.
