Georgie enjoys treating a wide variety of diagnoses, but is very passionate in sports related orthopedics, treating athletes of all ages and sports. She is a member of the Sports Medicine Special Interest Group, volunteering for one of IBJI’s running clinics. Georgie is willing to grow and become specialized in multiple certifications such as a clinical instructor. She is a strong believer in the collaborative treatment environment possible with IBJI in order to ensure the patient’s optimal recovery.

Outside the clinic you will see Georgie enjoy spending time with family and friends, playing and watching sports and is a big foodie who likes to try new restaurants.
