Profile

Britne Sampang, PTA, is a Chicago native and has been apart of the Illinois Bone and Joint Team for over 7 years. Britne began her journey with Illinois Bone and Joint in the Glenview location as a Rehabilitation Technician. Once she completed her degree as a PTA from Oakton Community College, she joined the Arlington Heights clinic. Britne has also obtained her bachelor's in Athletic Training from Illinois State University.

Britne enjoys treating a wide variety of different diagnoses, but has a passion for sports medicine as well as working with total joint replacements. She enjoys working with knee and foot and ankle injuries. Britne finds it very helpful in collaborating with physicians, nurses, and physician assistants to help provide excellent care to her patients. Britne could not be more pleased then to educate and provide the right tools to her patients to help them take an active role in their recovery.

Britne enjoys spending time with her husband and her family. She also enjoys walking and playing with Harley, her 4 year old Jack-Russell/Beagle. Britne also enjoys running, cooking, and reading.
