

Jerilynn Schiedemeyer, OTR/L, CHT

Occupational Therapist

Profile

Jerilynn Schiedemeyer, OTR/L, CHT, has been practicing as an Occupational Therapist since 1993. She became a Certified Hand Therapist in 1998 and has spent 25 years of her career solely devoted to Hand Therapy.

She enjoys treating a variety of upper extremity injuries and is skilled in custom splinting. She feels that the collaboration between therapist, patient and physician is important to achieve optimal functional outcomes.

In Jerilynn's spare time she enjoys reading, traveling, and spending time with her family and friends
